them from the list of members. The pastoral com. approved of this and the suggestion was made that a letter be sent each one by the monthly meeting saying that their names would be removed from our list of members unless we heard from them that they desired to be retained.

The question of how we can draw the younger people and indeed the whole of the meeting into a deeper spiritual life was considered. The series of meetings ^{came} were more helpful but we need to pray more about the spiritual life of our young people. Lewis Moon suggested we ask the young people from time to time to open the mid week meeting occasionally. This was left to the sub com of the Past to arrange and also to arrange for the presentation of the
