

October 17-

The regular meeting of the Pastoral Committee was held October 17-1922.

After a time of prayer the Minutes were read and approved.

Our representatives to the Quarterly meeting on Ministry and Oversight held at Shelton reported that all attended and that the meeting was a very interesting one.

The Committee on a plan for visiting reported on the work done, that the membership had been carefully gone over - members living in the same locality were as far as possible grouped. The suggested lists were distributed in the Pastoral Committee,

The Clerk reported that the stereoscopic lecture on the "Child in the Midst" by Charles Feltwell was most instructive and reported that so few of our members were present.

The Committees 1 and 2 as per Minutes of Sept. 20 were not ready to report.

The Clerk was directed to ask the Monthly Meeting to appoint Ella Cowman as a co-operating member of Pastoral Committee.

After prayer meeting adjourned.

November 7.

The Pastoral Committee met at Homewood November 7. 15 members were present.

After a time of devotion the Minutes were read and approved.

Attention was called to our Boy Scout group and the need for a committee to co-operate with them since each group is required to be related to some church. It was suggested this was a matter for the Monthly Meeting.

Lewis C. Moon reported he had conferred with Dr. L. W. McCrory of the Baltimore Federation of churches and with representatives of some of the churches in the Homewood Community, relative to house to house canvass for Sunday school pupils and publicly for our churches, who that the suggestion a good one and were ready to co-operate. Dr. McCrory stating that he would call the committee together and be responsible for the publicity if so desired. Also that the Committee agreed the plan was a good one and decided to have the representatives of the nine co-operating churches, Dr. L. W. McCrory, James Cary Jr. & Lewis C. Moon to further plans for the canvass at a luncheon at Homewood Meeting House.

As a result of the "reception" to Hopkins students, a list was given to us of 40 young men for whom we are asked to assume some responsibility, as they are without church connection.

The matter was referred to the Young People's Committee, to see what attention might be given them and suggest how this Committee might help.

The Pastoral Committee was notified of the appointment by the Monthly Meeting of Ella Cowman as a co-operating member - and the Recording
