

March 16th 1923

A meeting of the Pastoral Committee was held March 16th. Sixteen members were present.

After a season of worship the Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Systematic visiting of the Community in connection with other churches having been interrupted by storm & sickness will be taken up again soon.

The following report in regard to the series of meetings just held was given. Report The meetings planned in conjunction with the Park Avenue Friends for the week end of March 11th were held as planned. R. Near Brayshaw and Rowntree Gillett, of London, were very acceptably present, and their messages were instructive and helpful. Eight meetings were held, four at each meeting-house, and the meetings were drawn together in close fellowship as we met in joint sessions in these conferences. The attendance at these meetings was fairly representative of of the two meetings.

The work was expressed that in some way our appreciation of the Ministry of William H. Morris, who is to leave Baltimore soon should be placed upon record and Mary P. Applegate, Anna B. Thomas and John R. Cary were appointed to consider the matter and report.

Committee on Associate Members made the following report

Report The Committee to consider the Associate members met and went over the list considering each name carefully.

There are a number of old people, Associate members, who are connected with the Light Street Congregation and are no longer attenders of the meeting there, whose names it would be well to consider dropping.

The Committee is keeping their duty in mind and will report later the progress made.

Signed - Margaret T. Carey
For the Committee.

John R. Cary, J. James Hunter and Margaret A. Glover were appointed Representatives to the ensuing Quarterly Meeting of Ministry and Oversight.

The subject of increasing the members of the Pastoral Committee was discussed and the following minute adopted and directed to be sent to the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight for consideration.

In view of the lack of clear distinction between the Local meeting on Ministry and Oversight and the Pastoral Committee as provided for in the Discipline this meeting is invited in asking the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight to take steps to secure an addition to the Baltimore Appendix which should merge the two and give to all the members of the Pastoral Committee the status of members of the
