~~At Baltimore local meeting on Ministry~~
~~and Oversight held March 15th 1923 John R. Cary~~

To the Pastoral Committee.

Your Committee appointed to suggest a form of minute expressing the feeling of the Meeting in regard to the removal from Baltimore of William H. and Mary E. Morris propose the following, and trust that, if it is adopted a copy will be furnished to those friends.

" In view of the approaching removal from Baltimore of William H. and Mary E. Morris, beloved members of this Meeting, we would place on record an appreciation of their service and an expression of regret that the fellowship which meant so much to us must be interrupted by distance.

We are grateful for the inspirational ministry and spiritual leadership of William H. Morris, which has been of great help to many members of Baltimore Monthly Meeting.

We pray that God's benediction may rest upon these, our friends, in their new home, and in their future labors.

Then adjourned
