

of waiting, giving opportunity for serious consideration.

A proposition to prepare a communication to be sent to the Protestant Ministers Baltimore, dealing with our concern for laying greater emphasis upon the manifestation of Christian principles in the affairs of daily life, having been brought before the meeting the following Committee was appointed to prepare a letter and to report to an adjourned meeting. John R. Cary, John C. Thomas, Anna B. Thomas, Margaret J. Carey and Ella C. Cowman.

Then adjourned to a date subject to the call of the Chairman.
Mary E. Cary Secretary.

An adjourned meeting was held May 1st to hear the report of the Committee appointed at the former session of this meeting. The communication was approved and the Committee continued to have charge sending it out.

The Pastoral Committee of Baltimore
The meeting met 8th mo. 11th 1924 at the office of John C. Thomas, Fidelity Building 12.45 m. Present John C. Thomas, W. Morris Carey, Margaret J. Carey, Thomas G. Clark and J. James Hunter.

Application for associate membership was received from George W. & Eulalia H. Cook, for their minor daughter, Olga Elizabeth Cook in order that she might enter Westtown Boarding School.

After consideration it was felt that we could not recommend her acceptance at the present time, but if she could arrange to attend our meetings and familiarize herself with our method of worship and the principles we hold and then desire to become an associate member, we should be very glad to recommend her application.

John C. Thomas was asked to assist the Chairman in writing a letter to this effect to George W. & Eulalia H. Cook.

The meeting then concluded.

Signed - J. James Hunter
Chairman
