Work of

Past. Com

In considering the work of the Pastoral Committee - the visiting Committee reported that about 100 visits had been made, early in the fall. We were cautioned against taking all the visiting to the Committee at three but that all should participate in that work and lists should be made and given out to the members to guide in the visiting.

Cards in

Apt. House

The proposition to put cards in apartment houses, to announce the hours of meetings in this house was approved.

Children's

mtgs.

It was agreed that Ella C. Cowman should be asked to take charge of the Children's meetings.

The Visiting Ministers Com. was continued, namely, Richard J. White, Mary J. Carey, James Carey Jr & Lewis C. Moon.

The Committee for the mid-week mtgs was continued and the name of Anna B. Thomas was added. as it now stands the Committee is A. Morris Carey - Mary J. Applegarth, Thomas J. Clark and Anna B. Thomas.

This Pastoral Com. requests the appropriation of $10.00 for its work next year. Then adjourned.

November 24th 1924

At a meeting of the Pastoral Committee held Nov. 24th 14 members were present.

After a devotional season the minutes were read, and after a slight change adopted.

The Visiting Com. reported that lists of members had been given out and we were requested to keep these names on our hearts & minds & see that their interest in the meeting is kept alive.

The non-resident members were also considered and the Chairman asked to name a Committee who should communicate with the members in their effort to preserve their interest in the meeting.

Mary J. Carey, Anna B. Thomas and Anna J. Parker were asked to serve on that Committee.

The Committee, and Visiting Ministers reported that no friends had been invited during the past fall but that Geo. C. Noel of Kansas attended our meeting 11th and 24th and Charlotte Vickary ^{of Chicago} on the 7th also.

Francis A. White on behalf of the Overseas asked that all members requiring attention in any way should be referred to them.

The situation at the Light St. meeting as to what could be done to hold those who had recently become interested, was generally discussed, and it was agreed that the Home Mission should be asked to consult with the members of that meeting whether they wished any change in the methods now used there.

Then adjourned
