It was decided to appropriate $25.00 or as much thereof as is needed to cover our share of the expenses of a survey to be made for the churches of the Roland Park and Guilford district by the Survey Department of the Federation of Churches.

All the protestant ministers of Baltimore have received the invitation of the Federation of Churches to participate in a general exchange of pulpits on 1st mo, 15th and the matter was left with Lewis C. Moon to arrange for an interchange of Homewood with some other church, if way should open for same.

Then concluded.
