

Clerk was directed to inform him thereof.

"at a meeting of the Oversight Committee of Friends Mission, held Nov. 16th 1888, to investigate the charges against Jos. M. Haynes of conduct unbecoming a Christian, the said Jos. M. Haynes failed to appear, although he had been duly notified to do so. The following specifications were read & evidence given to substantiate them. No defence or explanation being offered, the committee unanimously agreed to recommend to the next Monthly Meeting that his name be struck from our list of members.

On behalf of the Committee,

John C. Thomas

John C. Hirsch "

The Committee also recommended that a series of meetings be held the first week after we get into the new Mission House, if way opens for it, which was adopted.

The Visiting Committee reported that a number of visits had been paid and other work done.

The report of the attendance of our meetings during the past month was read, showing an average of 19 on Sunday morning, 32 on Sunday night & 17½ on Friday night.

It was decided to have a Bible school on Sunday morning, and Mina Marshall, John C. Hirsch, John C. Thomas, Mary S. Thomas & Robt. B. Holland were appointed as a Committee to make arrangements for it.

John R. Cary was added to the Committee on Oversight.

Then concluded

John C. Thomas, Clerk
