The interest in this important work was reported to be well maintained. Rebecca Day stated that the contributions of the First Day afternoon school for the past month amounted to $1.14, making, with the previous contributions, a total of $3.17 for the benefit of scholars who may be sick & unable to procure proper food & medicine.

The Home Mission work was then considered, & The Visiting Comte reported some visiting done to members & others. The Cottage Meeting Comte reported four meetings held with much interest, though the attendance was small.

Geo. W. Bomberger reported that not much work had been done in Tract distribution. After considerable expression, the Meeting decided to request the Comte to resume the system of lending bound tracts that was begun two years ago.

It was decided to defer until next month the appointment of a committee to bring in names of members of the Standing Committees.

The subject of engaging in work during the summer for the ingathering of souls to the Lord was then taken up, & after very free expression, it was decided to appoint a committee to take the matter into consideration with power to have
