

of about 11.

Gottlieb Frey, on behalf of Committee on Temperance, reported that a Society had been organized & 15 members have paid in subscriptions of 25^c each.

Gottlieb Frey, Rebecca Day & Chas. A. Ricards were appointed to propose to our next meeting the names of three members to act as Clerk of this Meeting, Treasurer of the Expense Fund, and Treasurer of the Relief Fund for the ensuing year.

The Oversight Committee proposed that we have special prayer for a blessing upon our church, & for a revival of the Lord's work. It was decided to unite the men's & women's prayer meetings usually held before the First-day Morning meeting, at any rate until the end of this month.

Then adjourned
