Wm Schelhaus, Treas.

The Secretary of the First-day school reported the average attendance of the past month was 120.

The Committee on the Sociable reported that a very satisfactory Sociable was held 6th Mo. 5th, which was attended by 75 persons. The total cost was $13.88, of which 13.65 was contributed by 35 persons, & the balance .23 was taken from money left over from a former occasion.

The Home Mission Committee reported 4 cottage meetings held, with an average attendance of 21. The meetings were very interesting, & there were several requests for prayer. An open-air meeting was also held last First day, which was well attended & orderly. Full unity was expressed with this new effort, & those who feel drawn to the work were encouraged to proceed with it.

The Committee on Young Peoples Prayer meetings reported that the ~~work~~ ^{meetings} had been suspended for the summer. They have been very helpful in the past, & it is hoped that they will be resumed with still greater blessing in the Fall.
