The Secretary of the First day School reported an average attendance for the past month of 4 officers, 9 teachers & 130 scholars, making a total of 143. The school gave public exercises on the subject of Temperance one evening during the past month. About 450 persons were present & much interest was manifested. The Adult Bible Class has formed an organization with President, Secretary & Treasurer & is increasing rapidly in numbers & interest.

The meeting being informed that a number of ministers from a distance are expected to attend the approaching Yearly Meeting, the Oversight Committee were authorized to arrange for a series of meetings here, if way opens for it. Earnest prayers were offered for the work.

The Committee on Young People reported that the organization formed is in successful operation.
