The committee on meetings at the Friendly Inn reported that three meetings were held last month with small attendance, owing to the season. Decided interest was shown. The committee paid the Inn $1.50 as usual towards the expenses. It had been decided to close these meetings for the summer.

No report was received from the 1st day school but we were informed that the average attendance of the Mens Bible Class for the past month was 45. The class has now suspended its regular sessions for the summer. Much good has been accomplished since it opened last Fall.

2 Cottage Meetings have been held during the past month with an average attendance of 26, & were interesting. These meetings have been suspended for the summer.

It was decided to hold a weekly prayer meeting at this house on Wednesday nights, beginning on 13th inst.
