

The chairman of the Christian Endeavor Society reported 5 religious meetings during past month, with an average attendance of 20. Much interest is manifested & blessings have been received.

4 Wednesday night prayer meetings have been held with average attendance of 8 or 9.

The gospel meetings at the Friendly Inn been renewed & it is expected to continue them during the winter.

Our dear friend Geo. C. Wise Jr. expressed his prospect of engaging in prolonged religious service in Richmond, Va, & he was encouraged to proceed therewith under the guidance & blessing of the Lord. While we regret to lose him & his wife from our midst, we rejoice that one of our number has thus been called out into the great harvest field of souls.
