

13
I will not think Margaret & Joseph would have forgiven them even calling - cards so near - I will try to forgive them.

Margaret H. White

Waynesville

My dear Cousin 3

6th Mo. 18th 1845. -

It seems long since I have heard directly from any of your family. And sometimes, I do so feel a longing desire to see thee, and have a good talk, that I can hardly bear it. And my dear Cousins Eliza, and Sally, I often wonder how they are, knowing they have many infirmities. - Sister Hannah is increasingly feeble and helpless. Hardly able to get up, and down stairs. A great care to the girls & myself. - Philip & wife lost a little daughter on the 3rd inst. which was quite a trial to them, and ourselves. Their boy about two years old, is a beautiful child, healthy & bright.

I would like to see him, ^{Philip} & his favorite Cousin Saml. Janney together again, now ^{both} they are husbands & fathers, I hear them compare notes, of what has transpired in the