

And there is no mistake - and at times I can say with the Psalmist, "My cup runneth over." And few I believe, are happier than I am. But I forget - Kate, Lizzie and Phil. join me in much love, and best wishes for thy comfort, and happiness - Lovingly thy cousin Please excuse blot and the many imperfections as it is from thy over cousin, R. W. Hopkins.

Thanks to thyself, and also to Rev. O.
Martha, for thy letter, but as thou had had an other chill, we have been uneasy about thee since, fearing they have not been broken up.

I am truly glad to know that your yearly meeting was a favored one. I often think ours ^{with Thompson & Ind.} is too large. Although good order is duly observed, yet it seems remarkable that it should be so in such an immense assembly. -

The girls are in better health, I think, than when I wrote last, although Lizzie improves slowly. A physician from Cincinnati visits her once in a month, and says if she attends to his prescriptions faithfully she will eventually be cured. - As for myself, my general health is good. Take cold easily,
