

She must feel under this affliction. This was always the petted child of the family. Cousin Margaret has her children, & grand children to think of - but it is hard to her too, as I know from her letters. - I am always glad to hear from thy family, dear Martha, and especially of their doing well. Love to them all. The girls have had several letters from Sally Barber, that was, as she has probably changed her name before this time. - We hope she has done well - all to try is the future before her. - She has our best wishes. -

And now dear Cousin Margaret, I shall be thinking of thee during our Y. Mag. in Baltimore. But if there, I should see so many changes - so many - but it is best not ^{but} to think of it. -

The time before the last that I was in Baltimore, dear cousin William Hopkins came in our side after meeting with Joseph Cowman, who wished to see me, and we had some talking of old times. Now both of them, with a number of others are gone. I am glad my Henry & Hannah Fanny are so near thee, and value not only the relationship, but the tie that binds together congenial
