My own dear Cousin { 11.17. 1889.

This being a damp, rainy day, I feel excused from going to Meeting; and it seems long since Martha wrote last. - Our Yearly Mtg. and young^{er} are both passed since there has been any communication between us, if I am not mistaken. - From our Cousin Margaret Joliffe's letter, I find thou art able to be at Meeting frequently - from ^{which} I infer thou wast able in part, at least, to enjoy the late Y. Mtg. from which as yet, we have heard nothing.

I would gladly have united once
