Carrie Bailey, who has been in Baltimore a good deal with her married sister, was here during our Quarterly Meeting, and told of Julia Valentine's injury, and consequent illness. I was sorry to hear of it. She will find like myself, that being no longer able to do much, she will have to be content with doing a little, or even nothing, as the case may be.

Our merciful and ever-loving Lord, will accept the will for the deed, when that is all we can give. on 18th Cloudy & dull this morning. When you write, please let us know how they are at Franklin St. I feel much for the dear sisters, while caring for the one who now knows no care. The 3rd and Philip join in love. Very affectionately
H.B.
