shines here too, and we have blessings and comforts, and friends, for all which we cannot be too grateful. Unless Francis & Jane have bought another Country home, I have been where you are now, and remember the Library, so picture to myself thy pleasant surroundings. Our Quarterly Mtg. is just over.
Joseph Moore was here, & several other Ministers.

I feel uneasy about dear Henry Janney, he was so ill while here, coughed so much, & was so prostrated with traveling, and the great heat, that I feared he would hardly live to get back to Balt. He wrote of being better, but the cough still troublesome. Many thanks dear Martha for writing. Love to thy dear ones at home, & thyself. Please write soon.

How gladly would I take my seat beside thee my Cousin, this evening but can only in this way, offer the old time loving Salutation.
