 A bright-cold morning - I unintentionally omitted a message of love to
 dear Jan; Maggie and any of my relatives who remember me.
 Dear Cousin Lizzie
 & Margaret, Franklin
 St. how often I think of them - yearly meeting brings nothing of yonder-to them in their loneliness.

Now I must let thee, & kind Martha know how interested we were in your account of Mary S. Thomas's marriage, & C. who from her youth, has been a favorite of mine. I hope it is the right thing - but she will be miss'd.
 We are also glad that thy health is so good, after such dangerous illness.

We are in usual health - nearly. I had a severe attack of my old neuralgia about the region of the heart, in the night lately. - Dear Lizzie, who sleeps in my room, was by my bed side immediately, & my Kate as
