My beloved Cousin
Margaret H. White

Waynesville

12-18-1890 -

I had written to thee on the 12th inst. when I received Kind Martha's last letter, and laid my letter aside for the time. I am thankful to her truly, for information given, when we were so anxious concerning our afflicted cousins on Franklin Street. - Cousin M. Jolliffe's cup, poor, dear creature, was - and still is full. - Was Fanny's funeral at the house, or the Church? I thought of the Church, as she was an Episcopalian. She was a beautiful, & apparently innocent young girl, when I saw her last - never heard of her being in poor health, - and both deaths coming so near together, was a shock to their friends everywhere.

I know my Cousin Margaret, how last felt this unexpected trial, like myself deeply. Ever since we could remember any thing, dear cousin Elizabeth has seemed like a
