

not in any way responsible for this crime and - now that it is done - how can you - or any one else - possibly do any thing? It is done and Salisbury will have to live down her share!

I am intensely sorry for some of the very nice people who live there. They hate it all - I know and could never hold one bit of sympathy with any of it. If I thought you might by any possible chance read this yourself - I would like to say - that I have always admired your personal appearance beyond all and if you yourself and your politics were one half as nice as you look - seems to me you would be a very prize among men. Couldn't you possibly change your tactics? It would be so nice and oh! it would make it so much easier for you to meet your "maker" at the end of time - which you must do - whether or not. I am a Prohibi-
