

The Baltimore Catholic Review

Published Weekly by

THE METROPOLITAN PUBLISHING COMPANY OF BALTIMORE, MD.

Office: Cathedral and Franklin Sts., Balto., Md.
Phone—Vernon 7240

Make all checks payable to
THE BALTIMORE CATHOLIC REVIEW

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION

One Year	$2.00
Single Copy	Five Cents
Foreign, per Year	$3.50

Entered as second-class matter November 29, 1913, at the Postoffice at Baltimore, Maryland, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Friday, December 11, 1931

THE ARCHBISHOP'S ENGAGEMENTS

- Sunday, December 13:
10 A. M., Confirmation at Bradshaw; 3 P. M., Dedication of School at Bradshaw.
- Monday, December 14:
Meeting Saint Mary's Industrial School Board.
- Tuesday, December 15:
Clerical Conference in Baltimore.
- Thursday, December 17:
Clerical Conference in Washington.

BISHOP McNAMARA'S ENGAGEMENTS

- Saturday, December 12:
Pontifical Mass, Mt. Saint Agnes College, Mt. Washington.
- Sunday, December 13:
Confirmation, Fourteen Holy Martyrs', Baltimore.

FORTY HOURS' DEVOTIONS SUNDAY

(Sunday, December 13)

Church of the Epiphany, Washington.
Mt. Saint Agnes' College, Mt. Washington.

MARYLAND APOLOGIZES FOR THEM

STRAN CATHOLIC

A French priest, EDMÉ MARIOTTE, (1620-1684) established the law of gases which is still the basis of calculations on the continent of Europe making possible the supply of this commodity in domestic services.

Christina Wu, and I recently witnessed of the bodies of her sons for translation of the Martyrs near T

They were slain before her eyes during the Boxer rising (1900) because they were Christians.

Their cause as martyrs, along with others, has been taken up in Rome.

