

RITCHIE AND LANE HOLD TWO HOUR CONFERENCE

Session At Executive Mansion
Devoted to Discussion of Recent Salisbury
Lynching.

Annapolis, Dec. 21 (A)—A two-hour conference concerning the lynching of a negro at Salisbury, December 4, was held Sunday in the executive mansion here before Governor Ritchie and Attorney General William Preston Lane, Jr. Following the discussion Mr. Lane left for his home at Hagerstown. "Mr. Lane and I went over the entire situation," the Governor said. "Everything possible is being done by Mr. Lane in the situation."

The attorney general has been co-operating with Lavin C. Bailey, state's attorney of Wicomico county in an attempt to prosecute the leaders of the mob that seized the negro from the Peninsula Hospital and hung him in the courthouse yard.
