

Rev. Asbury Smith's Article Com- mended

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EVENING SUN—Sir:

I wish to commend the Rev. Asbury Smith's treatment of the "Salisbury Affair" in your issue of the 29th. It is just and sane. SELBY VERNON McCASLAND,

Professor of Religion in Goucher College.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EVENING SUN—Sir:

May I commend you for printing "The Salisbury Affair" in The Evening Sun of January 29? The Rev. Mr. Smith has presented the question most clearly.

The time has come when those who desire reason to govern relations between the races must speak out. The issues must no longer be cloaked in silence. Your stand should greatly encourage all who believe in justice and equality of opportunity for all races. Is it too much to hope that Mr.
Smith's open stand may give courage to every clergyman in the State, whether he be Jew, Catholic or Protestant, to stand for the elimination of all racial discrimination?
